PATRONS OF THE ARTS IN THE VATICAN MUSEUMS

ASIA CHAPTER

"I offer you a cordial greeting and once more I thank you for your support and cooperation in the important work of preserving and restoring the incomparable artistic and cultural patrimony of the Vatican Museums. Art refreshes the human spirit, just as water replenishes the dry and parched desert. The work of conversation to which you contribute not only safeguards this precious legacy of the past, but also invites new generations to reflect on the profound interplay between art, history, culture and faith."

Pope Francis
